

Gamma-ray Science Interest Group (GRSIG) Physics of the Cosmos (PCOS)

Justin Finke

28 January 2022

<https://pcos.gsfc.nasa.gov/sigs/grsig.php>

Gamma-ray SIG

- A focal point/forum for the gamma-ray community
- Maintain a list of technologies for future hard X-ray/gamma-ray missions
- Produce suggestions to help support needs of community (organizational, scientific, funding)

Gamma-ray SIG coordinators

- Bindu Rani (Korean Astronomy and Space Science Institute; binduphysics@gmail.com)
- Eric Burns (Louisiana State U; ericburns@lsu.edu)
- Justin Finke (Naval Research Laboratory; justin.finke@nrl.navy.mil)
- Sign up for GRSIG mailing list!
<https://pcos.gsfc.nasa.gov/sigs/grsig/grsig-maillist.php>
137 subscribers as of a few weeks ago

Upcoming Events

- Session at HEAD meeting - March 13-17 2022, Pittsburgh, PA
  - Wed. March 16, 12:00 pm - 1:30 pm
- Summer AAS meeting? 12-16 June 2022, Pasadena, CA
- Time-domain/Multi-messenger 22-25 August 2022, Baltimore, MD
- NASA Response to Astro2020

Questions/Comments/Suggestions?

Kevin Hurley remembrance

Dr. Kevin Hurley, 79, of Berkeley, passed away on December 24, 2021 after being diagnosed with incurable cancer. Kevin was a prominent astrophysicist and devoted husband, father and grandfather.

- UC Berkeley Space Science Laboratory
- PI of Gamma-ray Burst Experiment on Ulysses
- Made and enabled scientific advances in GRBs and magnetar flares